ESSAY #1 – Personal Statement (Required)

Please type and attach a one-page essay explaining why you wish to join this program and what contributions you believe it will make to your education. Feel free to include any special qualities you possess that will enhance the program's success (e.g., ability to relate well with people from other cultures, previous experiences abroad, or leadership roles you have taken on, etc.).

SCHOLARSHIP APPLICATION REQUIREMENTS

Scholarships are awarded to qualified undergraduate students of Felician University. You must satisfy the following:

- Complete and submit this application with the required personal statement and scholarship essay.
- Complete and submit the Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA), which must be on file with Felician's Office of Financial Aid on or before the published FAFSA deadline. (Note: This requirement is waived for international students).
- For faculty-led study abroad programs, enroll in the study abroad section of the corresponding study abroad course in the spring semester (e.g., Art 275 for Florence, Sociology 305 for Nicaragua, French 105 for Paris, and Psychology 317 for Barcelona). For the summer business program in Belfast, enroll in Economics 310 for Summer Session I.
- Explain in the box below any extenuating circumstances for financial need for study abroad. You may explain financial problems that may not have been captured when submitting your FAFSA (e.g., parent who lost his/her job, etc.)

ESSAY #2 - Scholarship Essay (Required for scholarship consideration)

Please explain your financial need here:

I understand that this application will not be accepted unless I have met all the requirements stated above. I also understand that awards will be based on the availability of funds, my enrollment status and the number of scholarship applications received. If I am awarded a scholarship, I hereby authorize Felician University to release information contained in this application to the scholarship donor(s) or the press.
